AMARENO

PORCELAIN STONEWARE

It's our long-term pursuit to have an artistic house. Amareno, the glazed porcelain wood tiles created by BODE CERAMICA, reflects the ecology of the Mother Nature's wood through the advancement of digital technology. Amareno has multi-surfaces which differ piece by piece. And different veining with additional effects that remind the planning manufacture typical of wood floors built by craftsmen. Be ecological, be trendy, be Amareno. Imbued with such beauty and strength, Amareno is ideal for today's living. Just try to dig out the difference between natural wood and Amareno.

Amareno comes available in matt and natural surfaces with original sizes 90x60CM and 120x60CM, and variety cutting sizes of 90x30, 90x20, 90x15, 90x10, 120x30, 120x20 and 120x15CM.

Amareno makes the natural wood alive.
